Exam review date: 20.03.2025 from 14:00 – 16:00 Uhr

Exam review location: klPhys (1090|334)

Please be on time at the exam review as only a limited number of participants can take part in the exam review simultaneously. Wait in front of the lecture hall until you are asked to enter. Please bring your Student ID.

In case you are not able to participate in the exam review in person yourself, you can authorize someone else to go to the exam review on your behalf. In this case we need a written and signed copy of the authorization. Furthermore, he or she needs to bring the Student ID (or a copy of the Student ID) as well as his or her own identification card.

You are not allowed to bring your bag to your seat at the exam review.

An appeal against the exam evaluation is only possible during the exam review. To this end you need to write the appeal on a prepared form which is handed out by the assistants.

Should this exam be your second or third failed attempt, you can request an oral re-examination. This is only possible during the exam review via the handed-out form.
